

Males (of war age) in 1860 in South Haven or Fire Place Hamlets

This table was prepared during June-October, 2014 as one step in the researching of Brookhaven (Fire Place) and South Haven, NY, residents to be included on the Civil War Honor Roll to be placed in the hamlets' Memorial Park. As many as 20% of Civil War soldiers were younger than 18. That was the minimum recruiting age for Union soldiers, but many people willingly overlooked the law. Therefore, this table from the 1860 census includes all males between the ages of 11 and 50 -- ages were often approximated in the census enumeration, and an eleven year old would have been sixteen by the end of the war. Standard on-line databases were searched. However, it should be recognized that Civil War records from the war are incomplete and not all are on-line. And vaguaries of spelling, indexing, and missing residencies make it likely that some Civil War veterans could have been missed.
